

THE 39th HERBERT OLIVECRONA SYMPOSIUM

“Ethics and serendipity in functional neurosurgery”

Friday 3 December 2021

Rolf Luft Auditorium , Anna Steckséns gata 53

Karolinska University Hospital Solna, Stockholm, Sweden

08.00 – 09.00	Registration
09.00 – 09.10	Welcome and Introduction Mikael Svensson, Karolinska Institutet/Karolinska University Hospital, Stockholm, Sweden
09.10 – 09.40	Where did we come from and where are we now? – history of functional and stereotactic neurosurgery Patric Blomstedt, Umeå University, Umeå, Sweden
09.40 – 10.10	Choosing the right patients for movement disorders surgery To be decided
10.10 – 10.40	Coffee
10.40 – 11.10	Choosing patients for “psychosurgery” Keith Matthews, University of Dundee, Dundee, UK
11.10 – 11.40	Considerations in lesional surgery for movement disorders Takaomi Taira, Tokyo Women’s Medical University, Tokyo, Japan
11.40 – 12.00	Imaging, targeting and tractography in stereotactic functional neurosurgery Harith Akram, UCL, London, UK
12.00 – 13.10	Lunch
13.10 - 13.40	DBS, PD and Impulsivity. Awake DBS for OCD, method and results. Philip Mosley, University of Queensland, Brisbane, Australia
13.40 – 14.00	BNST DBS for OCD Matilda Näslund, Umeå University, Umeå, Sweden
14:00-14:30	STN DBS for OCD To be decided
14.30 - 15.00	Coffee
15.00 - 16.00	Introduction of Professor Hariz by Anders Fytagoridis The Herbert Olivecrona Lecture Ethics and serendipity in functional neurosurgery Marwan Hariz , Umeå University, Umeå, Sweden
